

House Approves Korean Bonus Bill

Only Senate Agreement on Points Needed

Stratton's Office Indicates Measure Will Be Signed

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—A 75-million dollar bonus plan for Korean War veterans today needed only Senate agreement on some minor technical amendments before going to the desk of Gov. William G. Stratton for signature.

Stratton's office has indicated he will approve the bonus bills, although he vetoed a bonus plan in 1955.

The bonus plan then would be submitted to the voters for approval in November, 1958.

The House passed the bonus overwhelmingly Wednesday. It had previously passed the Senate.

The bonus would be financed through a bond issue to be paid off with a 1 cent a pack increase in the cigarette tax.

Let Voters Decide

The plan calls for payments of $10 for each month served in the armed forces between June 27, 1950, and July 27, 1953, whether the service was in the war theater, elsewhere overseas or in this country. It also provides for flat $100 payments to holders of the Korean Service Medal, and $1,000 payments to next of kin of those who died in service.

It is estimated some 95,000 veterans would be eligible for a bonus.

A handful of House members opposed the bonus on grounds it should be paid only to those who actually served in Korea. But Rep. David Hunter (R-Rockford) said it would "be a mistake not to let the people vote on" the bonus plan and that Korean veterans were as much entitled to a bonus as those of World War II.

The House Executive Committee, meanwhile, voted approval of the proposed constitutional amendment to make the auditor's office appointive under the governor rather than elective.

The full House will vote on this proposal and other constitutional changes at a special session tonight. All proposed constitutional changes must get a two-thirds vote in both houses, then be approved by the voters at a general election.

Trustee Bill Withdrawn

The full House killed a bill to abolish the separate boards of trustees governing the University of Illinois, Southern Illinois University and the four state teachers colleges and replace them with a single state board of higher education.

The bill had only 49 favorable votes with 89 required for passage when its sponsor, Rep. Paul J. Randolph (R-Chicago) withdrew it from consideration.

The single board covering all the schools would have had nine members appointed by the governor.

The House passed and moved to the Senate a bill to create an office of administrator of fair educational practices in the office of superintendent of public instruction to guard against racial and other discrimination in schools.

Produce Firm Moving Into Larger Quarters

The Yesinkus and Son Produce Co., which bought out the Harper-Tolley Wholesale Co. in Harrisburg earlier this year, is moving to larger quarters.

Pete and Jim Yesinkus, operators, are moving from the building on West Logan, where the business operated for years, to the former REA building on Route 45 and Church streets owned by Mrs. Gertrude Mitsdarffer and Mrs. Mary Andersen. They expected to be in operations there today.

Jim Yesinkus said the business was being moved so that the operations of wholesaling fresh fruits and vegetables can be expanded. Coolers have been moved from the Logan street building into the new location and new coolers are being constructed.

The Yesinkus family also operates a wholesale fruit and vegetable business in West Frankfort.

Spontaneous Uprising

UN Committee Indicts Soviets in Report on Hungarian Revolution

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—A United Nations special committee reported today that last year's Hungarian revolution was a spontaneous nationwide uprising crushed by the brutal intervention of Russian troops without invitation. It was the most sweeping indictment of Soviet communism ever issued by the United Nations.

A five-man committee appointed last January to conduct a full and objective investigation of the revolt announced its findings in a 150,000 word report. Its conclusion was based on evidence taken from 111 witnesses—some of them still loyal to the Communist Party—in hearings held here and in Vienna, London, Rome and Geneva.

Keith C. O. Shann, Australian ambassador to the Philippines, who prepared the report as the committee's rapporteur, said the revolution was "not an anti-Soviet revolution as such" and was not fomented by outside agencies, as, for example, Radio Free Europe.

The three main conclusions of the committee, comprising also representatives of Denmark, Ceylon, Tunisia and Uruguay, were these, Shann said:

1. There was, in fact, intervention by force by the Soviet Union to crush the uprising and to overthrow "a legal and popularly supported government."

2. The revolt was "a spontaneous national uprising not assisted from outside and not a counter-revolution to restore an old government."

3. The present government of Premier Janos Kadar "did not at the time of its installation and does not now have popular support."

U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. said he will call a 24-nation meeting to study the report. "The report must be studied by all governments," he said.

Lodge also said the report should be studied "as a matter of justice to Hungary and for their own self-protection against future Soviet attempts to overwhelm them."

Rainfall to Date Near Amount For Entire Year

Rainfall to-date in Harrisburg is just about as much as normally falls in an entire year, U. S. Weather Bureau figures revealed today.

Data obtained from Clyde Pittman, local observer for the U. S. Weather Bureau, revealed that 38.99 inches of rain has fallen here in 1957 up to June 18.

Normal rainfall in a year's time for Harrisburg has been established at 43.46 inches; so normally undoubtedly will be reached long before 1957 ends.

Pittman's figures show that there have been 65 days this year when rain could be recorded and several other days where there was an unrecorded trace of rainfall.

Eleven days of rainfall in January brought 4.19 inches of precipitation. In February it rained eight days for 3.63 inches; in March it rained eight days also for another 3.63 inches; in April there were 15 days of rain and the total jumped to 8.94; and in May there was record rainfall of 14.31 inches, with a record 7.38 inches in 24 hours on May 22.

June rainfall to-date has measured 4.29 inches, with rain in sufficient amounts to record falling on 11 days.

Wardens, Clergymen, Sheriff Ask Senate to Abolish Death Penalty

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—A bill to abolish the death penalty in Illinois on a 6-year trial basis Wednesday won the support of two prison wardens, Cook County Sheriff Joseph Lohman, two clergymen and a Joliet attorney.

All the men agreed before a Senate committee of the whole hearing on the bill that the death sentence is "no deterrent" to murder.

The bill has already passed the House, and Sen. Fred J. Smith (D-Chicago) told the hearing he has been "assured" that Gov. William G. Stratton will sign it into law if the measure wins passage in the Senate.

Lohman told the hearing there is a "worldwide trend away from the death sentence" and that abolition of the death sentence was "in the tradition of what Western man has committed himself to."

Asked if he thought the death sentence should be meted out to the killer of the Peterson and

Schuessler boys and the Grimes sisters in Chicago, Lohman said "whatever the maximum sentence of the state is, should be meted out."

Then he said he personally was opposed to the death sentence.

Warden James E. Denney of Pontiac State Prison said the span of 14 years to death now allowed for murder under state law was "very unfair."

He said he had been authorized by Warden Joseph E. Ragen of Joliet State Prison to say that Ragen too opposed capital punishment.

Warden Ross Randolph of Menard State Prison said "life imprisonment is a far greater punishment than death."

Paul Thurlow Joliet attorney, said the "brutal sadistic murderer should be taken out of society" but that "no man has the right to take the life of another even by law."

Lightning Kills Two Guardsmen In Bivouac Area

FT. BRAGG, N. C. (AP)—Two bolts of lightning in the midst of a violent electrical storm struck Wednesday in a bivouac area, killing two North Carolina National Guardsmen and wounding 47 others.

The men, members of North Carolina's 30th Infantry Division, were preparing for supper at the time of the accident. The "Old Hickory" division, some 8,000 strong, had gone to the bivouac area Monday at the beginning of their second week of active duty training.

None of the injured men is in serious condition. They were expected to be released after treatment at the Army hospital here. Names of the men and their regiments were withheld pending notification of the next of kin.

House Group Approves Most Of Postal Funds

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Appropriations Committee today voted the Post Office Department most of the extra funds it wanted to maintain normal service.

But the committee called for new postal economies including a cutback in Saturday service.

The committee approved and sent to the House a supplemental 133-million-dollar money bill that would bring to $3,325,000,000 total funds available to finance postal service in the 12 months starting July 1.

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield asked for $149,500,000 and said unless he got it before the start of the new fiscal year he would impose drastic cuts in service, including an almost complete shutdown on Saturdays.

"Several of these (proposed cutbacks), which can be accomplished administratively, appear to the committee to be very desirable, and in at least one case, the committee is at a loss to understand why action has not been taken by the postmaster general prior to this time," the committee said in a report to the House.

It said there appears to be no reason why:

—Second class publications and third class bulk mailings should not be required to be zoned at a saving of five million dollars.

—Star route service should not be reduced to once daily.

"There is strong feeling within the committee, the report continued, for abolition of money order sales with a possible saving of 26 million dollars.

"And finally," the committee said, "the committee cannot too strongly emphasize that with the modern trend to a five-day work week the department could re-examine city delivery service and effect such reductions in Saturday service as are in keeping with the pattern of business, industry, and suburbia generally."

EFFINGHAM, Ill. (AP)—Ira L. Carlen, 34, Greenup, was killed in a three car collision 15 miles east of here Wednesday night.

Authorities said it was impossible to determine immediately how the accident happened, but it appeared to involve a sideswipe and a head-on collision.

William P. Genatis, 18, Long Beach, Calif., the driver of the second car, was taken to Memorial Hospital here for treatment.

The driver of the third car, Joseph Robert Goron, Columbus, Ohio, who was westbound on U. S. 40, escaped with minor injuries.

Pinkneyville Man Crushed to Death In Coal Conveyor

PINKNEYVILLE, Ill. (AP)—John Frank Linze, 42, Pinkneyville, was crushed to death Wednesday in a coal conveyor in the preparation plant of the Truax-Truax Company's Pyramid near here.

Authorities said Linze had to be used to free Linze, a maintenance man, from the metal belt. He was killed instantly.

The company, which is investigating the death, said the conveyor is not normally in operation at the time Linze's death occurred. Perry County coroner John Gaetz set an inquest for Friday.

Linze is survived by his widow and three children.

Warden Ragen Notified of Board's Action

Will Be Eligible For Discharge from Prison in 1959

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—The Pardon and Parole Board today denied a parole to Edward A. Hintz, the former Chicago banker who cashed the phony checks Orville E. Hodge used to raid the state treasury.

Warden Joseph E. Ragen, of Joliet - Stateville Prison where Hintz is incarcerated, said he had been notified of the board's decision.

Ragen said Hintz now will be eligible for discharge from prison on Feb. 28, 1959.

Hintz was sentenced last August to three years in prison and a $3,000 fine for his part in the giant Hodge embezzlement.

He is also serving a concurrent three year federal sentence in the same case.

Hintz applied for parole and the board heard his case on May 22. He asked to be released Aug. 31, one year to the day from the time he entered prison.

That would have been the earliest he could have been released, and even if the board had granted a parole Hintz would still have had to win a parole on the federal sentence before he could have been released.

At his parole hearing on May 22 Hintz told the board he had helped force Hodge to confess his piracy by telling him that "if you don't go to the governor," Hintz would.

When he was first implicated in the scandal last summer, Hintz said he had trusted Hodge and was not aware of the embezzlements.

"Hodge sold me a piece of blue sky," Hintz then told investigators.

Also at his parole hearing, Hintz said he had several job offers and that his wife, Ella, was gravely ill and needed him at home.

Ragen said he would not interrupt prison routine to inform Hintz of the decision until the work day is over.

"I don't expect him to say anything when he hears about it," Ragen said. "He's too smart for that."

Hintz, 68, was president of the Southmoor Bank and Trust Co. in Chicago where Hodge cashed the phony checks used in his scheme to raid the state treasury. Hintz also kept the secret "brown envelope" account in which Hodge deposited the stolen money.

Hintz was sentenced in Federal District Court in Chicago to three years in prison and five years probation last Aug. 24. Then on Aug. 30, he was sentenced to three years on state charges and a $3,000 fine.

The state indictments charged him with conspiracy to defraud the state.

The federal indictment charged him with misapplying some $461,000 in federally insured banks.

Hodge is serving a 12-15 year sentence in Menard State Prison. Another accomplice, Edward A. Epping, is serving five years, also in Menard.

Within a few minutes after Ragen's disclosure of the decision, R. J. Branson, acting chairman of the board at Springfield, confirmed it.

Branson said Hintz' application had been marked "Parole denied, maximum 'X'."

He said this meant Hintz would be discharged on expiration of his sentence Feb. 28, 1959. This will allow for time off for good behavior.

Cook-Culbreth Marriage Solemnized At Dorris Heights

Miss Judith Anne Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tora Cook of Harrisburg RFD 1, and Ronald Keith Culbreth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Culbreth of 513 North Main street, Carrier Mills, were united in marriage in the Dorris Heights Methodist church in a candlelight wedding on Friday May 31, at eight o'clock in the evening. Rev. Maurice Winn performed the double-ring ceremony in the presence of the families and many friends. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over white slipper satin, styled with a fitted bodice having a Sabrina neckline, long fitted sleeves pointed at the hands, and a full tulle skirt with ruffles and a lace over-skirt. Her veil of illusion was finger-tip length and secured to a tiara of pearlized orange blossoms.

The bride's bouquet was of white carnations with an orchid center, placed on blue net and tied with blue ribbons.

Miss Carolyn Dewey, close friend of the bride, served as her maid of honor and wore a white polished cotton dress embroidered with blue flowers and having a blue satin sash, with a bow and streamers at the back waistline. Her headdress and colonial bouquet were fashioned of blue pom-poms.

The bridesmaids were Miss Mary Ann Conover and Miss Sally Joan Conover, cousins of the bride. Their dresses and flowers were the same as the maid of honor.

Joel Culbreth, brother of the bridegroom, acted as his best man.

Jack Pankey was the groomsmen and Bill Morris and Dick Santy were ushers and lighted the candles for the service.

Deborah Trammel, flower girl, was dressed in a miniature of the costumes of the bridesmaids.

Sammy Evans was ring-bearer. The mother of the bride wore a navy silk suit, complemented with black patent shoes and handbag and a white hat and gloves. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a navy blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Full Name Needed With Renewal of Drivers License

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter today disclosed that many persons seeking to have their drivers licenses renewed are not properly filling out their applications for renewal. As a result, these applications must be returned to the applicant for correction, thus delaying the issuance of a renewed drivers license.

Secretary Carpenter said most of the applications are now being returned because the applicant has not filled in his or middle name as required. If the applicant does not have a middle name, the application should read, for example, as: James (none) Brown. If the applicant's name contains an initial only, not standing for a name, it should be shown as: James R. (only) Brown.

In the case of married women, the name should be read, for example: Mary Jane Brown, not Mrs. James Richard Brown.

The complete filling out of the name as described above is necessitated by the Electronic Data Processing method now employed in Secretary Carpenter's License Division. The complete name and correct date of birth are necessary for the new code to establish a positive identification of the person to whom the license is issued. The same number will be assigned upon renewal as long as the driver is licensed in Illinois.

Former Harrisburg Boy Has 12-Year Perfect School Attendance

Larry Adkins

Larry Adkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Adkins of 1118 South Mill street, Pontiac, Mich., and formerly of the Harrisburg community, holds a record of never having been absent nor tardy during his twelve years in the grade and high schools.

Larry started in a country school in West End, continued at Central school when his family moved to Pontiac, and was graduated from the Lincoln school of Pontiac. He attended the PTHS for the four years of his high school course and was graduated this month.

Larry, a nephew of Lucky Leroy Marvel, had an early morning paper route to cover for the last five years, and exposure in all kinds of weather, which makes his perfect attendance more remarkable. He also held the Cornbelt title one year and participated for four years in the mile running race. September will find Larry enrolled at Northern Illinois University at DeKalb, taking a general education course of study.

Matter of FACT

• Britannica Junior Encyclopedia
Sir Isaac Newton, philosopher, astronomer and mathematician, was the very prototype of the absent-minded scholar. Often his thoughts were so profound that he could not hear the voices of his friends. His servants had to beg him to take time to eat, and even his pet cat so disturbed him that he cut a hole in the door so that it could come and go without his stopping work.

Charge Ex-Convicts With Robbery Of Elderly Man

SHAWNEETOWN, Ill., June 20 — A 70-year-old Equality man charges that two men, known to be ex-convicts, robbed him of his car, watch, cigarette lighter, knife and about $50 in cash on a road north of Old Shawneetown shortly after midnight Saturday.

Held in the Gallatin County jail are John Nelson, who is on parole from Menard State penitentiary, and Omar Barger, who was discharged from Menard about seven months ago. Both are residents of Shawneetown.

According to Sheriff Millard Holloway, the victim, Robert Parish of near Equality, told him that around midnight Saturday he went out to get into his 1950 Chevrolet parked on a street in Old Shawneetown and found the two men in the back seat. They told him they were armed and ordered him to get in and drive off.

He was forced to drive over the north levee and a short distance out was ordered to turn off the main road and stop. He was ordered to get out of the car after which Nelson took his watch, knife, cigarette lighter and billfold, the sheriff said.

After the pair drove off in the car Parish hid in the bushes and then made his way into town by taking the road when it was clear then ducking back into the bushes when he saw a car coming, fearing it might be the robbers.

The car was found abandoned at Robinson, Ill., Sunday morning and has been returned to the court house yard.

On Monday night, working on a lead provided by Old Shawneetown police, the sheriff apprehended Nelson and Barger in a trailer at Old Shawneetown where the former's father resides. They were taken into custody about 10:15. Sheriff Holloway stated that the stolen articles but not the cash had been recovered.

Robbery charges have been filed against the two who were scheduled for arraignment Wednesday. Officers stated that Nelson, who had previously broken parole, would be turned over to parole authorities, and Barger probably would be bound over to the grand jury. Nelson had been out on parole about seven months.

Robin Freed

HARTFORD CITY, Ind. — (AP) — A robin carrying a piece of string to a nest was trapped high in a tree when the string caught on a branch and the bird's claw at the same time. "IF AND WHY"

IF baptism is not essential to salvation—

1. WHY did Jesus say: "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned." Mark 16:16.
2. WHY did Peter say: "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins." Acts 2:38.
3. WHY did Ananias tell Saul this: "And now why tarriest thou arise and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord." Acts 22:16.
4. WHY did Christ say: "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen."

SHAWNEETOWN KIWANIS TO SPONSOR CITY SPRAYING IF PEOPLE WANT IT DONE

The subject of spraying the city with DDT in order to get rid of mosquitoes and other insects was discussed at the regular meeting of the Shawneetown Kiwanis Club Tuesday night.

A similar project was successfully carried out several years ago when a plane and tractor were engaged for the job. The cost was covered by donations made by the citizens to the extent of more than $300.

It was agreed that the matter would be left up to the people. Those who are interested in having the Kiwanis club sponsor such a project are urged to contact a member of the club, the mayor, a member of the city council or this newspaper prior to next Tuesday.

Little Grassy Scout Camp to Open On June 23

Little Grassy Lake Boy Scout camp will open for the summer starting on June 23, according to information released by the Egyptian Boy Scout Council. Edwin Medaris, district executive for Obelisk and Sahara districts will direct the camp for the second straight year. Assisting McGraw will be Gordon Hansen of Marion, district Scout executive of the Pyramid and Nile districts, as program director. Those who will continue through six periods of one week duration. While the first three periods are filled almost to capacity, there is still room for a small unit in each of these periods and room for several units in each of the last three periods. Scoutmasters who have not yet registered their units are urged to do so at once by writing or calling the Boy Scout office at Herrin, telephone 2-7101.

Starting Monday of this week the camp staff will report at camp for final training and instructions. The council officials believe that a fine staff of young men has been recruited to assist unit leaders in providing an interesting camp experience for their boys. E. L. Hilliard, district Scout executive, will serve as water-front director. James Garrison, of Marion, will serve as assistant water-front director. Program assistants will be: Adrian Bowers of West Frankfort, Don Edman of Carmi, Dan Busch of Murphysboro, Paul Buff of Carbondale, Larry Miller of Scout masters and their Patrol leaders will be in camp this week-end for training in camp operation. They will receive instruction in charcoal cooking, program planning and general camp operation, so that when they come with their troop they will be prepared to offer their boys a wholesome experience.

No More Browns

NEW CASTLE, Ind.—(AP)—For 105 years a shingle on an office in a building on Broad St. advertised that the occupant was "Brown, Attorney at Law." First it was James, in 1852. Then his son William. Then William's sons, William, Paul and James. The last of the Browns moved to another state recently. The office was rented to somebody whose name isn't Brown.

Ell Whitney did not realize any great profits from his invention of the cotton gin.

Observers Agree Floods, Storms To Cost Area Millions in Crops

Agricultural observers agree that swirling flood waters, late spring frosts, skipping tornadoes, wind storms, and water-logged ground will realize five million dollars in crop yields. Normal yearly income for crops in the county is eight million dollars.

"Corn planting in bottomland this year is a 'closed book' in Fayette County," Turner said.

Saline County farm adviser L. B. Kimmel at Harrisburg estimated the county crop loss at one million dollars due to heavy rains and said wind damage has caused another $250,000 damage.

In Williamson County, farm adviser Ed Lee at Marion estimated the unusual weather will cost farmers between $300,000 and $750,000.

One marketing spokesman said frosts and tornadoes will cost southern Illinois peach growers some two million dollars this year.

Strawberry crop losses have been heavy in Franklin and Jackson counties and in the Centralia area due to excessive moisture.

In Franklin County alone, the strawberry loss has been estimated at more than $50,000.

There is a rosy outlook for this year's apple crop, however. One observer said there are more apples on the trees this year than last which was considered a good year.

UN Summons Reds to Meeting Of Korean Armistice Groups

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—The United Nations Command today summoned the Communists to a meeting of the military armistice groups at Panmunjom Friday.

Persistent reports said the U.N. Command would nullify the 1953 armistice agreement.

The U. S. military announced it was flying 20 American correspondents from Japan to Panmunjom to cover the meeting but would not confirm the Allies were ready to end the agreement, repeatedly violated by the Reds in building up a massive striking force in North Korea.

The armistice agreement was signed in Panmunjom on July 27, 1953, by North Korean Gen. Nam Il for the Communists and Lt. Gen. William K. Harrison Jr., of the U. S. Army as senior delegate for the U. N. Command.

Some sources said the UNC almost certainly would seek abrogation of paragraph 13-D of the armistice agreement. It is that paragraph which forbids either side in Korea to build up their forces beyond the point they were at the time of the truce.

The U.N. has adhered strictly to this paragraph while the Communists have ignored it.

To Replace Weapons

In Washington South Korean Ambassador You Chan Yang said he understands the U. N. Allies have agreed on a program for modernizing their weapons in Korea. Representatives of the 16 Allied U. N. nations worked out their plans at a recent Washington meeting, he said.

It was not known here exactly what the ramifications of such a move would be. But diplomatic sources suggested one intention might be to replace the outmoded Korean War material of the United Nations forces.

Leaders of the U. N. Command said the Communists brought modern jet planes into North Korea in violation of the armistice, built up major air bases within easy striking distance of Japan, and revamped the once-defeated North Korean army with the latest heavy armor.

South Korea repeatedly has declared the armistice agreement voided by the massive Communist build-up while complaining that the ROK forces were limited to such weapons as those in use at the end of the fighting four years ago.

Escape Artist Awaits Transfer At Pulaski Jail

MOUND CITY, Ill. (AP)—An 18-year-old jail escape artist restlessly awaited his transfer to today in a cell without a feed slot at the Pulaski County jail here.

Sheriff Robert Aldrich said Bob by Joe Palmer, father of two, will be taken to Menard State Penitentiary Friday to serve a 1-to-5 year sentence for burglary and larceny imposed Monday.

Early Tuesday, the 5-foot 4-inch 120-pound Palmer squirmed thru a 6 1/2 by 12 inch feed slot in his jail cell and escaped. Aldrich said Palmer admits committing two burglaries and stealing a car, before terrorizing a Pulaski family at knife-point.

Aldrich and state patrolman Lon Buie arrested Palmer at the home of Red Lilly. Lilly said Palmer held his wife and several small children hostages for several hours while hiding there.

Mrs. Lilly slipped a note to her daughter who called at the home while Palmer was there.

Take Cash, Jewelry From Drug Store At Shawneetown

The Herrmann Drug Store in Shawneetown was entered Sunday night and cash and watches were taken, George Herrmann, proprietor, reports.

Entry was gained by prying open the front door with a crow bar or some similar tool, the evidence shows. The force of the instrument used for prying caused the inside facing to which the lock keep was attached to give way along with a part of the door frame.

Mr. Herrmann said that about $20 in change kept in the two cash registers and a cigar box was taken and that 10 watches were missing—some pocket watches and other wrist watches.

Traces of burnt matches found throughout the store indicated that the intruder, or intruders apparently had made a search for additional cash. Several drawers were found to have been disturbed.

The burglary was discovered about 6:45 a. m. Monday and is believed to have occurred some time between midnight and day-break.

Diplomat's Missing Daughter, Page Boy Are Held By Police

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—State police today reported they picked up Christiana Wennerstrom, daughter of a Swedish diplomat, and 18-year-old congressional page boy, Hew Williams, who have been missing since June 2 when it was believed they eloped.

Authorities said the two had been married in West Virginia and were driving back from Canada when they were picked up in Allenwood, about 15 miles south of here.

The 16-year-old girl is the daughter of a former Swedish military attaché who has returned to Stockholm on reassignment. Williams, from Falls Church, Va., is a Senate page.

Christiana's mother stayed behind when her husband went to Sweden in hopes the girl would be found.

Two Suffer Eye Injury by A-Blast

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Two women suffered eye damage while watching Tuesday's atomic blast from a point 45 miles distant, the Atomic Energy Commission disclosed Wednesday.

Judith Burke and Valerie Graves, employees of an electrical and engineering company, were among six persons who witnessed the blast from Hermit Mountain, an unrestricted area.

The AEC said all six persons had special protective goggles but Miss Burke failed to get hers on in time and Miss Graves chose to wear sunglasses instead.

They did not report the incident until almost 18 hours after the blast. AEC physicians who examined them Wednesday reported they found no permanent impairment. The women said the sensation was similar to that caused by looking into the sun.

As a result of this incident, the AEC has issued a special preblast advisory warning in connection with a scheduled major nuclear detonation next Thursday.

The AEC advisory warns residents, motorists and fliers in an 11,360-square mile area of Nevada and California of potential eye damage from next Thursday's test. The area includes three major highways.

Meanwhile, the AEC investigated complaints from ranchers that the tests in the current series have damaged the eyes of cattle.

Soviet Fleet Heads Into the Mediterranean

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP)—A Soviet cruiser and two escort vessels passed through the Bosphorus from the Black Sea towards the Mediterranean early today.

Several other cruisers and destroyers were scheduled to pass through the straits later in the day.

Final destination of the Soviet flotilla was not known. Three submarines which passed through the Mediterranean this week from North Sea ports arrived in Alexandria, Egypt.

Allied observers believed the Red fleet was being sent into the Mediterranean as a diplomatic maneuver.

The Russians have shown considerable irritation over the presence in the Mediterranean of the massive U. S. 6th Fleet and the part it played in the Jordan crisis.

Senate Approves Supplemental Funds For Vet Benefits

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Wednesday approved an $85,669,925 supplemental appropriation bill including $65,000,000 for veterans benefits.

Most of the benefits were earmarked for GI schooling of Korean War veterans.

The bill was sent to the White House for the President's signature.

The House Wednesday voted 218-186 against a Senate proposal to add 14 million dollars to the bill to start a federally subsidized flood insurance program. It was the second time the House has refused to approve money for a start on the 500-million-dollar program authorized by Congress last year.

By a 156-47 vote, the House also refused to approve even 10 million dollars of the 30 million dollars the Senate voted for government buying of tungsten, asbestos, fluorspar and Columbian tantulum.

The Senate agreed to drop the proposals from the bill.

Gov't Appeals Girard Case to Supreme Court

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government appealed directly to the Supreme Court today to reverse a court order preventing it from surrendering GI William S. Girard to Japanese authorities for a manslaughter trial.

A petition filed with the court by Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell Jr. asked the court to reverse last Tuesday's decision by Federal Judge Joseph C. McGarraghy.

McGarraghy has ruled that a Japanese trial for Girard would violate his constitutional rights.

The government petition said McGarraghy's decision is "clearly wrong" and "public interest in an early disposition of this case" is very great.

Brownell asked the court to accept the case for review, and urged that it schedule oral argument "if deemed necessary, at an early date convenient to the court." He also suggested that Girard's attorneys be required to reply to his petition within two days.

The court now is scheduled to adjourn for the summer recess next Monday. However, it could extend the term for any period it chooses.

U. S. Proposes America and Russia Cut Armed Forces To 2 1/2 Million Men Each

LONDON (AP)—The United States proposed today that the U. S. and Soviet armed forces be cut to 2 1/2 million men each. It said the reductions should be made "without any political preconditions" as part of a first-step disarmament plan.

U. S. delegate Harold E. Stassen made the proposal at today's session of the five-power London disarmament conference, conference sources disclosed.

The cut, to be carried out within one year of the signing of a disarmament treaty, would be part of an overall agreement including the future of nuclear tests.

Stassen also told the conference the United States was prepared to consider further substantial armed force reductions in order to meet Russia half-way.

He indicated the United States would consider the cutting of forces to a figure substantially lower than the proposed 2 1/2 million level—depending on the solution of political problems.

Conference sources said that while the U. S. offer of a 2 1/2-million-man reduction was made without any prior political conditions, further cuts below this level would depend upon the progressive settlement of outstanding East-West political issues.

The long-awaited American proposal touched off a general discussion in which Soviet delegate Velerian Zorin, British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and Canada's David Johnson, took part.

Lloyd emphasized that an agreement on levels of armed forces was a necessary ingredient in any partial disarmament agreement. The Canadian delegate welcomed Stassen's plan.

Zorin, Soviet deputy foreign minister, was non-committal on the U. S. plan. He apparently wanted to await further information on the scope of the U. S. proposal and to consult with the Kremlin on it.

Meanwhile, puzzled Allied reaction to President Eisenhower's statement on halting nuclear tests indicated the Western powers still have not agreed on a "first step" toward control of nuclear arms.

Hope for Light Year for Polio

WASHINGTON — Health authorities said today there is every reason to hope that this will be a light year for polio. But it is still too early to be sure.

The polio season is just now getting underway. The number of cases usually climbs steadily from late June until August or September.

So far this year, there have been only about half as many polio cases as there were during the same period of 1956—and 1956 was itself a light year by comparison with the pre-Salk vaccine era.

Public Health Service figures published last week showed 1,038 polio cases reported through the 23 weeks ending June 8, compared with 2,040 during the same period last year.

A spokesman said the figures "are not very significant" this early in the season. Some of the worst epidemics have begun in July or August after a comparatively slow start.

The main reason for hoping that this year's record will continue to be good, he said, is that nearly three-fourths of the people in the most susceptible group have received some degree of protection from Salk vaccine.

By June 1, 65,000,000 Americans had received one or more Salk shots. Nine million of these were vaccinated during April and May. Polio strikes hardest among youths under 20 and among pregnant women. There are 67,000,000 people in this group, and 54,000,000 of them have had one or more shots.

Although polio incidence declines above age 20, it continues to be a substantial threat to all ages below 40. Only 11,000,000 of the 42,000,000 Americans other than pregnant women; between the ages of 20 and 40 have received shots.

Hoak Homer in Dodger Tilt Ends Reds' Loss-Streak; Cards Win Two from Pirates

By United Press
The Brooklyn Dodgers can't figure Don Hoak. They gave him his first chance in the big leagues, cut him in for a full World Series share in 1955 when he was with them and did everything they could to make him happy. And now, look at the thanks they're getting.

He blasted a two-run homer Wednesday night that beat the Dodgers, 4-3, and snapped a four-game Cincinnati losing streak. Only 11 days ago, Hoak belted a two-run homer off Don Drysdale to defeat the Dodgers, 3-1, in the opener of a double-header and then he clouted another home run off Ed Roebuck to help the Redlegs take the nightcap, 3-0.

On May 8 he came up with a three-run circuit blow off Don Newcombe to give Cincinnati a 7-6 triumph.

The Dodgers are hoping he gets lost somewhere.

Hoak's homer Wednesday night came in the seventh inning on the heels of a pinch two-run homer by Bob Thurman. That four-run rally spelled the seventh victory of the season for Tom Acker. Clem Labine was the loser.

Cards Sweep Two
The St. Louis Cardinals climbed to within a half-game of the pace-setting Braves by sweeping a two-night double-header from Pittsburgh, 5-2 and 5-1, while Milwaukee blanked the Giants, 6-0, and the Cubs beat the Phillies twice, 9-0 and 4-3.

In the American League, the White Sox stayed 2½ games in front with a 3-1 decision over the Orioles; the Yankees crushed the Tigers, 10-2; Kansas City clipped Washington, 6-3, and Boston beat Cleveland, 6-0.

Sam Jones and Lindy McDaniel registered the Cardinals' pair of victories over the Pirates. Jones struck out 10 and pitched a seven-hitter in the opener which was decided in the seventh inning when Joe Cunningham's pinch two-run homer highlighted a three-run rally that snapped a 2-2 tie. The Cards got to Bob Purkey for three runs in the first in-

Kiwanians Sell Sponsor Tickets for Baseball Program

Members of the Kiwanis club are selling sponsorship tickets for the club's summer baseball program for boys of Harrisburg and surrounding areas. The tickets are $2 or for any other contribution a person might desire to make to help pay expenses of the worthwhile recreation program, an annual undertaking of the Harrisburg Kiwanis club.

At Tuesday night's meeting at the Masonic temple, President Richard Davenport announced the club would tour Lake Harrisburg area next Tuesday evening. Members will meet at the Masonic temple at 6 p. m. for the regular dinner meeting following which Amos Doom, water department superintendent, will guide the visit to the lake.

Gene Neihaus of the Sahara Coal company was a guest of President Davenport at the meeting.

Junior Legion Blanks Albion

The Harrisburg Junior Legion baseball team blanked Albion, 8 to 0, Wednesday night on the Harrisburg VFW park.

The locals played a fine ball game. They got seven hits and played errorless ball to hand Albion its second defeat of the season.

Jerry King, hurling for Harrisburg, allowed one infield hit and struck out 14 for his second win of the season.

Ray Hassett and Darrell Biggs hit triples for the big boys of the game. Others getting hits were Gary Aldridge, Ron Maynard, Don Pickford, Bob Clark and King.

Name Assistant All-Star Coaches

CHICAGO — Two former Californians have been named assistant coaches for the 1957 College All Star team, it was announced Wednesday night.

They are Don Paul, a linebacker with the Los Angeles Rams for eight years and former UCLA star, and Don Doll, a Southern California product who played with the Detroit Lions.

The All Stars will meet the National Football League champion New York Giants in their annual battle at Soldier Field Aug. 9.

Former Green Bay Packer and Chicago Cardinal Coach Curly Lambeau will pilot the All Stars for the second straight season.

Bargers Win Kiwanis Tilt

Keltner homered in the last of the seventh inning to break a tie and give Barger's Accountants a 6-3 decision over Walker's Cleaners Wednesday at the VFW park, in Kiwanis baseball play.

The winners had only three hits off Coker, who walked four and struck out eight, but two of these hits drove in two runs and the other was the deciding homer. Emery was the winning pitcher, giving up six hits and seven free passes while striking out 10. Williams was Barger's leading hitter with two singles and Businaro hit safely twice for the losers.

Dorrisville Baptist did not appear for its scheduled Pony league game with Social Brethren.

Brown TKO's Zulueta in 15th

DENVER, Colo. — Lightweight champion Joe Brown, radiating confidence after Wednesday night's marathon technical knockout of Cuban challenger Orlando Zulueta, said today he would fight highly-regarded Kenny Lane within 90 days if the National Boxing Association wanted him to.

Brown, starting slowly, rallied powerfully in the final three rounds at Denver Coliseum to smash Zulueta helpless with 21 seconds remaining in the 15th round.

The 28-year-old Zulueta made a good, smart fight of it until the 11th and was ahead on judge Joe Ullmer's card, to the delight of the small crowd of 5,000 who sensed an upset.

But in the 18th round the champion's punches picked up power. He floored Zulueta for a nine count with a left he brought up from below his knees.

Brown knocked Zulueta to the floor again with a right for a count of eight in the 15th. Referee Ray Keech called the bout at 2:30, with much boisterousness from the crowd.

But the scorecards of the two judges and the referee showed the 2-1 favored champion ahead on points after 14 rounds, and Zulueta was plainly in no condition to throw a knockout punch—his only chance to win—in the final seconds.

THE STORY: Dr. Garde Shelton has met Valley Stanfield and her sister Nan, his next door neighbors in Bayard. To Garde has come to the small town to take Dr. Kurt Lillard's place on the clinic staff. Dr. Lillard was convicted of murder and was engaged to Nan. But Valley too seems to have been involved in the slaying.

VIII
That same evening it appeared that he would be busy. For he had scarcely gone inside again—he had not yet sat down—when the phone rang sharply. “Goodness,” he exclaimed, “I didn’t even know we had one.”

His mother was hurrying down the hall, and he followed at a more leisurely pace. She picked up the phone and spoke into it breathlessly. “Hello?”

He must tell her how to answer for him, how to take messages, and tell her not to give medical advice, herself.

“Oh, yes,” she was saying, “he’s here. Just a minute...”
Her face pink, she turned to Garde. “It’s a call already!” she said in a loud whisper.

He took the phone. “Dr. Shelton here,” he said in a firm, clear voice.

“Sir, this is the operator at the clinic. A child has been hurt down at the club. Since you live near, would you want to go there?”

His patient proved to be a little girl, with a long, ugly cut along her throat under her chin. She had lost a lot of blood and now lay limp and white against her mother’s denim jacket.

She was an enchanting little thing, with a mass of bright curly hair, brown-satin limbs, long lashes.

“Tell me what happened,” said Garde, his voice rasping. He glanced at the white-coated servant.

“Could I have a basin of water? Towels? Soap?”

“Yes, sir!” said the attendant called Sparks and took off at what was a brisk pace for him.

Garde knelt to get a closer look at the cut, then, putting his fingertips upon the child’s throat, he asked the mother if she thought they could lift Linda enough to put her flat upon the table.

Not waiting for a reply, this move was affected. “Stand out of my light,” said the new doctor, his whole attention upon the little girl, the fingers of his right hand were upon her pulse. “What’s her name?”

“Linda. She cut herself on her bottle. She ran down the beach with it—stumbled—and the bottle broke...”
It had barely missed the jugular, too, that edge of broken glass.

Now others standing about took up the story; they were all dressed in picnic clothes, jeans and denim; all were young people. They’d had this beach picnic; Linda had gone off for her bottle; she was getting ashamed of still drinking from one. But the way she came back! Bleeding, screaming, scared to death!

The doctor heard them, but his first attention still was upon the work at hand. Afterward these onlookers told how intent he was, and swift.

“It looked as if he never moved his hand from that cut—holding it together—but somehow he got his bag open and some instruments out. He put on some bright, clamp- looking things that took the place of his fingers. Then he was wash- ing that kid’s throat with plain old soap and water—and he had a lit- tle bottle, like, with a needle and thread. Oh, no! Not a regular sew- ing needle! And he was sewing up the cut. First he sponged some- thing on it that I imagine dead- ened the pain. Don’t you remem- ber? Yes! And then he sewed it. He stood there steady as a rock, bent over her and taking care of her.”

“You came close to losing your child tonight,” he said brusquely to the mother.

She gasped. “Oh, I know, doc- tor! And I am so grateful to you!”

“My job,” said Garde, turning back to the child’s eyelids.

“Yes, but to have you close enough—”
He listened, straightened, took off the instrument and looped it into his bag. “Linda is four, isn’t she?—That’s much too old to be using a nursing bottle still. Had you properly trained her to drink from a cup when she was a year old, all this would not have oc- curred. Certainly you should not have allowed her to run about with anything so lethal as a glass bottle in her hands.” Linda began to stir, and his big hand soothed her.

He knew that around him these people were exchanging glances; there was even a soft murmur of words.

“Dr. Shelton,” asked Linda’s mother; she was a very striking- looking woman, tall and slender, with high cheek bones and a big mouth. Huge eyes. “Are you mar- ried?”

He laughed. “No, I’m not.”
“Well,” said Linda’s mother, “maybe you should be. Maybe then you’d understand a parent’s problems better.”

The next day, Garde went to the clinic, ready to work on a reg- ular schedule. That day was fol- lowed by another and another. Garde was reluctant to talk to Beth about his associates, not at all about his patients and very little about the other doctors and people connected with the clinic.

Beth filled this vacuum with talk of her own experiences.

She must, he thought, watch the Stanfields constantly. Judging from the detailed reports on them which she was able to furnish Gar- de.

“Mother, don’t intrude on them.”
“I don’t, Garde. But I can’t help seeing them.”

House Approves Korean Bonus Bill

Only Senate Agreement on Points Needed

Stratton's Office Indicates Measure Will Be Signed

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—A 75-million dollar bonus plan for Korean War veterans today needed only Senate agreement on some minor technical amendments before going to the desk of Gov. William G. Stratton for signature.

Stratton's office has indicated he will approve the bonus bills, although he vetoed a bonus plan in 1955.

The bonus plan then would be submitted to the voters for approval in November, 1958.

The House passed the bonus overwhelmingly Wednesday. It had previously passed the Senate.

The bonus would be financed through a bond issue to be paid off with a 1 cent a pack increase in the cigarette tax.

Let Voters Decide

The plan calls for payments of $10 for each month served in the armed forces between June 27, 1950, and July 27, 1953, whether the service was in the war theater, elsewhere overseas or in this country. It also provides for flat $100 payments to holders of the Korean Service Medal, and $1,000 payments to next of kin of those who died in service.

It is estimated some 95,000 veterans would be eligible for a bonus.

A handful of House members opposed the bonus on grounds it should be paid only to those who actually served in Korea. But Rep. David Hunter (R-Rockford) said it would "be a mistake not to let the people vote on" the bonus plan and that Korean veterans were as much entitled to a bonus as those of World War II.

The House Executive Committee, meanwhile, voted approval of the proposed constitutional amendment to make the auditor's office appointive under the governor rather than elective.

The full House will vote on this proposal and other constitutional changes at a special session tonight. All proposed constitutional changes must get a two-thirds vote in both houses, then be approved by the voters at a general election.

Trustee Bill Withdrawn

The full House killed a bill to abolish the separate boards of trustees governing the University of Illinois, Southern Illinois University and the four state teachers colleges and replace them with a single state board of higher education.

The bill had only 49 favorable votes with 89 required for passage when its sponsor, Rep. Paul J. Randolph (R-Chicago) withdrew it from consideration.

The single board covering all the schools would have had nine members appointed by the governor.

The House passed and moved to the Senate a bill to create an office of administrator of fair educational practices in the office of superintendent of public instruction to guard against racial and other discrimination in schools.

Produce Firm Moving Into Larger Quarters

The Yesinkus and Son Produce Co., which bought out the Harper-Tolley Wholesale Co. in Harrisburg earlier this year, is moving to larger quarters.

Pete and Jim Yesinkus, operators, are moving from the building on West Logan, where the business operated for years, to the former REA building on Route 45 and Church streets owned by Mrs. Gertrude Mitsdarffer and Mrs. Mary Andersen. They expected to be in operations there today.

Jim Yesinkus said the business was being moved so that the operations of wholesaling fresh fruits and vegetables can be expanded. Coolers have been moved from the Logan street building into the new location and new coolers are being constructed.

The Yesinkus family also operates a wholesale fruit and vegetable business in West Frankfort.

Spontaneous Uprising

UN Committee Indicts Soviets in Report on Hungarian Revolution

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—A United Nations special committee reported today that last year's Hungarian revolution was a spontaneous nationwide uprising crushed by the brutal intervention of Russian troops without invitation.

It was the most sweeping indictment of Soviet communism ever issued by the United Nations.

A five-man committee appointed last January to conduct a full and objective investigation of the revolt announced its findings in a 150,000 word report. Its conclusion was based on evidence taken from 111 witnesses—some of them still loyal to the Communist Party—in hearings held here and in Vienna, London, Rome and Geneva.

Keith C. O. Shann, Australian ambassador to the Philippines, who prepared the report as the committee's rapporteur, said the revolution was "not an anti-Soviet revolution as such" and was not fomented by outside agencies, as, for example, Radio Free Europe.

The three main conclusions of the committee, comprising also representatives of Denmark, Ceylon, Tunisia and Uruguay, were these, Shann said:

1. There was, in fact, intervention by force by the Soviet Union to crush the uprising and to overthrow "a legal and popularly supported government."

2. The revolt was "a spontaneous national uprising not assisted from outside and not a counter-revolution to restore an old government."

3. The present government of Premier Janos Kadar "did not at the time of its installation and does not now have popular support."

U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. said he will call a 24-nation meeting to study the report. "The report must be studied by all governments," he said.

Lodge also said the report should be studied "as a matter of justice to Hungary and for their own self-protection against future Soviet attempts to overwhelm them."

Rainfall to Date Near Amount For Entire Year

Rainfall to-date in Harrisburg is just about as much as normally falls in an entire year, U. S. Weather Bureau figures revealed today.

Data obtained from Clyde Pittman, local observer for the U. S. Weather Bureau, revealed that 38.99 inches of rain has fallen here in 1957 up to June 18.

Normal rainfall in a year's time for Harrisburg has been established at 43.46 inches; so normally undoubtedly will be reached long before 1957 ends.

Pittman's figures show that there have been 65 days this year when rain could be recorded and several other days where there was an unrecorded trace of rainfall.

Eleven days of rainfall in January brought 4.19 inches of precipitation. In February it rained eight days for 3.63 inches; in March it rained eight days also for another 3.63 inches; in April there were 15 days of rain and the total jumped to 8.94; and in May there was record rainfall of 14.31 inches, with a record 7.38 inches in 24 hours on May 22.

June rainfall to-date has measured 4.29 inches, with rain in sufficient amounts to record falling on 11 days.

Wardens, Clergymen, Sheriff Ask Senate to Abolish Death Penalty

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—A bill to abolish the death penalty in Illinois on a 6-year trial basis Wednesday won the support of two prison wardens, Cook County Sheriff Joseph Lohman, two clergymen and a Joliet attorney.

All the men agreed before a Senate committee of the whole hearing on the bill that the death sentence is "no deterrent" to murder.

The bill has already passed the House, and Sen. Fred J. Smith (D-Chicago) told the hearing he has been "assured" that Gov. William G. Stratton will sign it into law if the measure wins passage in the Senate.

Lohman told the hearing there is a "worldwide trend away from the death sentence" and that abolition of the death sentence was "in the tradition of what Western man has committed himself to."

Asked if he thought the death sentence should be meted out to the killer of the Peterson and

Bills Signed by Gov. Stratton

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Gov. William G. Stratton has signed into law another bill in the Hodge scandal reform program and a series of measures to tighten up administration of the state relief program.

The reform bill creates a legislative audit commission to give the Legislature a check on state spending. The commission will receive the reports of the new auditor general and will have authority to ask the auditor general to make specific audits.

One of the bills to tighten up the relief program would rule ineligible for relief any person who turns down a suitable job or training that would make him employable.

Another bill would require that contributions from families and other sources be considered in computing the amount of relief to be granted.

A third bill would require relief recipients to notify the relief office of any changes in their financial status.

Another bill signed into law will:

Raise the salary of Supreme Court Marshal Robert Milley from $7,500 a year to $9,000.

Lightning Kills Two Guardsmen In Bivouac Area

FT. BRAGG, N. C. (AP)—Two bolts of lightning in the midst of a violent electrical storm struck Wednesday in a bivouac area, killing two North Carolina National Guardsmen and wounding 47 others.

The men, members of North Carolina's 30th Infantry Division, were preparing for supper at the time of the accident. The "Old Hickory" division, some 8,000 strong, had gone to the bivouac area Monday at the beginning of their second week of active duty training.

None of the injured men is in serious condition. They were expected to be released after treatment at the Army hospital here. Names of the men and their regiments were withheld pending notification of the next of kin.

House Group Approves Most Of Postal Funds

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Appropriations Committee today voted the Post Office Department most of the extra funds it wanted to maintain normal service.

But the committee called for new postal economies including a cutback in Saturday service.

The committee approved and sent to the House a supplemental 133-million-dollar money bill that would bring to $3,325,000,000 total funds available to finance postal service in the 12 months starting July 1.

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield asked for $149,500,000 and said unless he got it before the start of the fiscal year he would impose drastic cuts in service, including an almost complete shutdown on Saturdays.

"Several of these (proposed cutbacks), which can be accomplished administratively, appear to the committee to be very desirable, and in at least one case, the committee is at a loss to understand why action has not been taken by the postmaster general prior to this time," the committee said in a report to the House.

It said there appears to be no reason why:

—Second class publications and third class bulk mailings should not be required to be zoned at a saving of five million dollars.

—Star route service should not be reduced to once daily.

"There is strong feeling within the committee, the report continued, for abolition of money order sales with a possible saving of 26 million dollars.

"And finally," the committee said, "the committee cannot too strongly emphasize that with the modern trend to a five-day work week the department could re-examine city delivery service and effect such reductions in Saturday service as are in keeping with the pattern of business, industry, and suburbia generally."

PINCKNEYVILLE, Ill. (AP)—John Frank Linze, 42, Pinckneyville, was crushed to death late Wednesday in a coal conveyor in the preparation plant of the Truax-Traer Company's Pyramid near here.

Authorities said torches had to be used to free Linze, a maintenance man, from the metal belt. He was killed instantly.

The company, which is investigating the death, said the conveyor is not normally in operation at the time Linze's death occurred. Perry County coroner John Gaezlet set an inquest for Friday.

Linze is survived by his widow and three children.

Three Teen-Agers Face 99 to 110 Year Prison Terms for Slaying Motel Owner

CHICAGO (AP)—Three teenagers branded by prosecuting attorneys as "young rattlesnakes" today faced prison terms of 99 to 110 years for slaying a suburban motel owner.

The youths were found guilty Wednesday night by a Criminal Court jury. The mother of one of the defendants collapsed when the verdict was read, and other relatives sobbed.

Steam Kills 2 Seamen

Five Others Seriously Burned Aboard Aircraft Carrier Franklin D. Roosevelt

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Live steam set loose by an exploding high speed pump aboard the aircraft carrier Franklin D. Roosevelt killed two seamen and seriously burned five others, the Navy said today.

The Navy said 29 other seamen were treated for heat prostration or exhaustion from being trapped or from heroic rescue work as the steam jetted through deck after deck of the 45,000-ton carrier Wednesday.

Capt. T. W. Hopkins, skipper of the big flattop, told newsmen a harrowing account of the tragedy and a stirring account of heroism in an interview after the FDR docked this morning.

"The casualties were due to live steam," Hopkins said. "Both men who were killed apparently were on their way to help the two men on duty in the pump room at the time of the explosion."

The carrier, about 100 miles off the Florida coast at the time, was brought to the Navy carrier basin at Mayport, Fla., near here.

A Navy board of investigation was convened immediately to determine the cause of the explosion

Seeks Judgments From Two Burial Insurance Societies

Louise Lecke seeks judgments from the Inland Insurance Union and the Big Four Insurance associations. Burial insurance societies with headquarters at Lawrenceville, Ill.

In a circuit court complaint filed for her by Atty. Don Scott and Atty. Joe M. Butler, she asks $500 plus attorney fees and costs from each of them, the complaint contending that her deceased sister, Leola Batey, held $500 policies with each of them at the time of her death Aug. 11, 1956.

It says that the policies were executed July 16, 1954 and were in full effect at the time of her death and that the companies had refused to pay the money to Mrs. Lecke, named the beneficiary on the policies.

Hintz, 68, was president of the Southmoor Bank and Trust Co. in Chicago where Hodge cashed the phony checks used in his scheme to raid the "late treasury. Hintz also kept the secret "brown envelope" account in which Hodge deposited the stolen money.

Hintz was sentenced in Federal District Court in Chicago to three years in prison and five years probation last Aug. 24. Then on Aug. 30, he was sentenced to three years on state charges and a $3,000 fine.

The state indictments charged him with conspiracy to defraud the state.

The federal indictment charged him with misapplying some $461,000 in federally insured banks.

Hodge is serving a 12-15 year sentence in Menard State Prison. Another accomplice, Edward A. Epping, is serving five years, also in Menard.

Within a few minutes after Hodge's disclosure of the decision, R. J. Branson, acting chairman of the board at Springfield, confirmed it.

Branson said Hintz' application had been marked "Parole denied, maximum 'X'."

He said this meant Hintz would be discharged on expiration of his sentence Feb. 28, 1959. This will allow for time off for good behavior.

Hintz applied for parole and the board heard his case on May 22. He asked to be released Aug. 31, one year to the day from the time he entered prison.

Hintz was sentenced last August to three years in prison and a $3,000 fine for his part in the giant Hodge embezzlement.

He is also serving a concurrent three year federal sentence in the same case.

Warden Ragen Notified of Board's Action

Will Be Eligible For Discharge from Prison in 1959

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—The Pardon and Parole Board today denied a parole to Edward A. Hintz, the former Chicago banker who cashed the phony checks Orville E. Hodge used to raid the state treasury.

Warden Joseph E. Ragen, of Joliet Stateville Prison where Hintz is incarcerated, said he had been notified of the board's decision.

Ragen said Hintz now will be eligible for discharge from prison on Feb. 28, 1959.

Hintz was sentenced last August to three years in prison and a $3,000 fine for his part in the giant Hodge embezzlement.

He is also serving a concurrent three year federal sentence in the same case.

Hintz applied for parole and the board heard his case on May 22. He asked to be released Aug. 31, one year to the day from the time he entered prison.

Hintz would have been the earliest he could have been released, and even if the board had granted a parole Hintz would still have had to wait a year before he could have been released.

At his parole hearing on May 22 Hintz told the board he had helped force Hodge to confess his piracy by telling him that "if you don't go to the governor," Hintz would.

When he was first implicated in the scandal last summer, Hintz said he had trusted Hodge and was not aware of the embezzlements.

"Hodge sold me a piece of blue sky," Hintz then told investigators.

Also at his parole hearing, Hintz said he had several job offers and that his wife, Ella, was gravely ill and needed him at home.

Ragen said he would not interrupt prison routine to inform Hintz of the decision until the work day is over.

"I don't expect him to say anything when he hears about it," Ragen said. "He's too smart for that."

Miss Judith Anne Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tonal Cook of Harrisburg RFD 1, and Ronald Keith Culbreth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Culbreth of 513 North Main street, Carrier Mills, were united in marriage in the Dorris Heights Methodist church in a candlelight wedding on Friday May 31, at eight o'clock in the evening. Rev. Maurice Winn performed the double-ring ceremony in the presence of the families and many friends. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over white slipper satin, styled with a fitted bodice having a Sabrina neckline, long fitted sleeves pointed at the hands, and a full tulle skirt with ruffles and a lace over-skirt. Her veil of illusion was finger-tip length and secured to a tiara of pearlized orange blossoms.

The bride's bouquet was of white carnations with an orchid center, placed on blue net and tied with blue ribbons.

Joel Culbreth, brother of the bridegroom, acted as his best man.

Jack Pankey was the groomsman and Bill Morris and Dick Santy were ushers and lighted the candles for the service.

Deborah Trammel, flower girl, was dressed in a miniature of the costumes of the bridesmaids.

Sammy Evans was ring-bearer. The mother of the bride wore a navy silk suit, complemented with black patent shoes and handbag and a white hat and gloves. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

Full Name Needed With Renewal of Drivers License

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. — Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter today disclosed that many persons seeking to have their drivers licenses renewed are not properly filling out their applications for renewal. As a result, these applications must be returned to the applicant for correction, thus delaying the issuance of a renewed drivers license.

Secretary Carpenter said most of the applications are now being returned because the applicant has not filled in his or middle name as required. If the applicant does not have a middle name, the application should read, for example, as: James (none) Brown. If the applicant's name contains an initial only, not standing for a name, it should be shown as: James R. (only) Brown.

In the case of married women, the name should be read, for example: Mary Jane Brown, not Mrs. James Richard Brown.

The complete filling out of the name as described above is necessitated by the Electronic Data Processing method now employed in Secretary Carpenter's License Division. The complete name and correct date of birth are necessary for the new code to establish a positive identification of the person to whom the license is issued. The same number will be assigned upon renewal as long as the driver is licensed in Illinois.

Former Harrisburg Boy Has 12-Year Perfect School Attendance

Larry Adkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Adkins of 1118 South Mill street, Pontiac, Mich., and formerly of the Harrisburg community, holds a record of never having been absent nor tardy during his twelve years in the grade and high schools.

Larry started in a country school in West End, continued at Central school when his family moved to Pontiac, and was graduated from the Lincoln school of Pontiac. He attended the PTHS for the four years of his high school course and was graduated this month.

Larry, a nephew of Lucky Leroy Marvel, had an early morning paper route to cover for the last five years, and exposure in all kinds of weather, which makes his perfect attendance more remarkable. He also held the Cornbelt title one year and participated for four years in the mile running race.

September will find Larry enrolled at Northern Illinois University at DeKalb, taking a general education course of study.

Charge Ex-Convicts With Robbery Of Elderly Man

SHAWNEETOWN, Ill., June 20 — A 70-year-old Equality man charges that two men, known to be ex-convicts, robbed him of his car, watch, cigarette lighter, knife and about $50 in cash on a road north of Old Shawneetown shortly after midnight Saturday.

Held in the Gallatin County Jail are John Nelson, who is on parole from Menard State penitentiary, and Omar Barger, who was discharged from Menard about seven months ago. Both are residents of Shawneetown.

According to Sheriff Millard Holloway, the victim, Robert Parish of near Equality, told him that around midnight Saturday he went out to get into his 1950 Chevrolet parked in a street in Old Shawneetown and found the two men in the back seat. They told him they were armed and ordered him to get in and drive off.

He was forced to drive over the north levee and a short distance out was ordered to turn off the main road and stop. He was ordered to get out of the car after which Nelson took his watch, knife, cigarette lighter and billfold, the sheriff said.

After the pair drove off in the car Parish hid in the bushes and then made his way into town by taking the road when it was clear then ducking back into the bushes when he saw a car coming, fearing it might be the robbers.

The car was found abandoned at Robinson, Ill., Sunday morning and has been returned to the court house yard.

On Monday night, working on a lead provided by Old Shawneetown police, the sheriff apprehended Nelson and Barger in a trailer at Old Shawneetown where the former's father resides. They were taken into custody about 10:15. Sheriff Holloway stated that the stolen articles but not the cash had been recovered.

Robbery charges have been filed against the two who were scheduled for arraignment Wednesday. Officers stated that Nelson, who had previously broken parole, would be turned over to parole authorities, and Barger probably would be bound over to the grand jury. Nelson had been out on parole about seven months.

"IF AND WHY"

IF baptism is not essential to salvation—

1. WHY did Jesus say: "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved: but he that believeth not shall be damned." Mark 16:16.
2. WHY did Peter say: "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins." Acts 2:38.
3. WHY did Ananias tell Saul this: "And now why tarriest thou arise and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord." Acts 22:16.
4. WHY did Christ say: "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. Amen."

SHAWNEETOWN KIWANIS TO SPONSOR CITY SPRAYING IF PEOPLE WANT IT DONE

The subject of spraying the city with DDT in order to get rid of mosquitoes and other insects was discussed at the regular meeting of the Shawneetown Kiwanis Club Tuesday night.

A similar project was successfully carried out several years ago when a plane and tractor were engaged for the job. The cost was covered by donations made by the citizens to the extent of more than $300.

It was agreed that the matter would be left up to the people. Those who are interested in having the Kiwanis club sponsor such a project are urged to contact a member of the club, the mayor, a member of the city council or this newspaper prior to next Tuesday.

Petit Larceny Results in Restitution, Probation, Payment of Court Costs

He entered a plea of guilty and was ordered to make restitution in the amount of $40, assessed court costs totaling $35, and placed on probation for a year. He is to pay the $75 at the rate of $15 per month payable on the third Monday of each month at which time he also is to report to his probation officer, Sheriff Millard Holloway.

Little Grassy Scout Camp to Open On June 23

Little Grassy Lake Boy Scout camp will open for the summer starting on June 23, according to information released by the Egyptian Boy Scout Council. Edwin McGraw, of Carmi, district executive for Obelisk and Sahara districts will direct the camp for the second straight year. Assisting McGraw will be Gordon Hansen of Marion, district Scout executive of the Pyramid and Nile districts, as program director.

Twenty four troops have already registered for camp, which will continue through six periods of one week duration. While the first three periods are filled almost to capacity, there is still room for a small unit in each of these periods and room for several units in each of the last three periods. Scoutmasters who have not yet registered their units are urged to do so at once by writing or calling the Boy Scout office at Herrin, telephone 2-7101.

Starting Monday of this week the camp staff will report at camp for final training and instructions. The Council officials believe that a fine staff of young men has been recruited to assist unit leaders in providing an interesting camp experience for their boys. E. L. Hilliard of Carmi will be in charge of the commissary and trading post; Bill Beattie, of West Frankfort, will serve as waterfront director; James Garrison, of Marion, will serve as assistant waterfront director. Program assistants will be: Adrian Bowers of West Frankfort, Don Edman of Carmi, Dan Busch of Murphysboro, Paul Buff of Carbondale, Larry Miller of Marion and Ronald Parr of Metropolis. All of the above are Explorer Scouts over 16 years of age and represent a variety of skills in Scouting. Mr. Nellie Norman of Marion will serve as staff cook and will handle all food preparation for members of the camp staff.

Due to the wet weather this spring, there are many small tasks around the camp which have not been completed at this time. It is hoped that most of them will be ready for the opening of camp. There is need for volunteer workers to assist with many of these tasks and any Explorer aged boy or any adults who can spend a few hours or a day working at the camp is urgently requested to come out to the camp and volunteer his services. One of the large projects needed is work on the roads. Truckers who could donate the use of a truck and bring out a load or two of "gob" or gravel would be especially welcomed. Those wishing to volunteer their services are urged to call Herrin 2-7101 for details.

Scout masters and their Patrol leaders will be in camp this week-end for training in camp operation. They will receive instruction in charcoal cooking, program planning and general camp operation, so that when they come with their troop they will be prepared to offer their boys a wholesome experience.

No More Browns

NEW CASTLE, Ind.—(UP)—For 105 years a shingle on an office in a building on Broad St. advertised that the occupant was "Brown, Attorney at Law." First it was James, in 1852. Then his son William. Then William's sons, William, Paul and James. The last of the Browns moved to another state recently. The office was rented to somebody whose name isn't Brown.

Observers Agree Floods, Storms To Cost Area Millions in Crops

By United Press

Agricultural observers agree that swirling flood waters, late spring frosts, skipping tornadoes, windstorms, and water-logged ground will cost southern Illinois millions of dollars this year in crop losses.

A spot check showed today that a 30-county area is in its worst condition in years from an agricultural standpoint.

In Fayette County, where the flooding Kaskaskia River at one time covered 50,000 acres of rich farmland, farm adviser J. B. Turner said farmers will be "lucky" if they realize five million dollars in crop yields. Normal yearly income for crops in the county is eight million dollars.

"Corn planting in bottomland this year is a 'closed book' in Fayette County," Turner said.

Saline County farm adviser L. B. Kimmel at Harrisburg estimated the county crop loss at one million dollars due to heavy rains and said wind damage has caused another $250,000 damage.

In Williamson County, farm adviser Ed Lee at Marion estimated the unusual weather will cost farmers between $500,000 and $750,000.

One marketing spokesman said frosts and tornadoes will cost southern Illinois peach growers some two million dollars this year.

Strawberry crop losses have been heavy in Franklin and Jackson counties and in the Centrailla area due to excessive moisture.

In Franklin County alone, the strawberry loss has been estimated at more than $50,000.

There is a rosy outlook for this year's apple crop, however. One observer said there are more apples on the trees this year than last which was considered a good year.

UN Summons Reds to Meeting Of Korean Armistice Groups

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—The United Nations Command today summoned the Communists to a meeting of the military armistice groups at Panmunjom Friday.

Persistent reports said the U.N. Command would nullify the 1953 armistice agreement.

The U. S. military announced it was flying 20 American correspondents from Japan to Panmunjom to cover the meeting but would not confirm the Allies were ready to end the agreement, repeatedly violated by the Reds in building up a massive striking force in North Korea.

The armistice agreement was signed in Panmunjom on July 27, 1953, by North Korean Gen. Nam Il for the Communists and Lt. Gen. William K. Harrison Jr., of the U. S. Army as senior delegate for the U. N. Command.

Some sources said the UN almost certainly would seek abrogation of paragraph 13-D of the armistice agreement. It is that paragraph which forbids either side in Korea to build up their forces beyond the point they were at the time of the truce.

The U.N. has adhered strictly to

this paragraph while the Communists have ignored it.

To Replace Weapons

In Washington South Korean Ambassador You Chan Yang said he understands the U. N. Allies have agreed on a program for modernizing their weapons in Korea. Representatives of the 16 Allied U. N. nations worked out their plans at a recent Washington meeting, he said.

It was not known here exactly what the ramifications of such a move would be. But diplomatic sources suggested one intention might be to replace the outmoded Korean War material of the United Nations forces.

Leaders of the U. N. Command said the Communists brought modern jet planes into North Korea in violation of the armistice, built up major air bases within easy striking distance of Japan, and revamped the once-defeated North Korean army with the latest heavy armor.

South Korea repeatedly has declared the armistice agreement voided by the massive Communist build-up while complaining that the ROK forces were limited to such weapons as those in use at the end of the fighting four years ago.

Escape Artist Awaits Transfer At Pulaski Jail

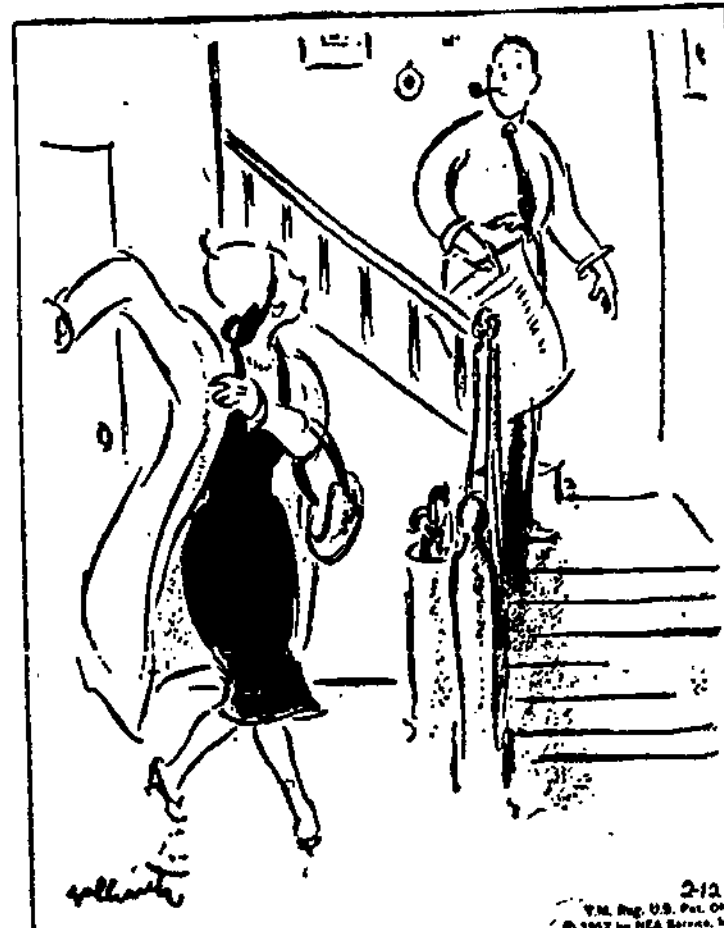

MOUND CITY, Ill. (AP)—An 18-year-old jail escape artist restlessly awaited his transfer to prison today in a cell without a feed slot at the Pulaski County jail here.

Sheriff Robert Aldrich said Bob Joe Palmer, father of two, will be taken to Menard State Penitentiary Friday to serve a 1-to-5-year sentence for burglary and larceny imposed Monday.

Early Tuesday, the 5-foot 4-inch 120-pound Palmer squirmed thru a 6 1/2 by 12 inch feed slot in his jail cell and escaped. Aldrich said Palmer admits committing two burglaries and stealing a car, before terrorizing a Pulaski family at knife-point.

Aldrich and state patrolman Lon Buie arrested Palmer at the home of Red Lilly. Lilly said Palmer held his wife and several small children hostages for several hours while hiding there.

Mrs. Lilly slipped a note to her daughter who called at the home while Palmer was there.

"Dear, I'm going to run over to mother's for a minute—I'll be back in a couple of hours!"

Take Cash, Jewelry From Drug Store At Shawneetown

The Herrmann Drug Store in Shawneetown was entered Sunday night and cash and watches were taken, George Herrmann, proprietor, reports.

Entry was gained by prying open the front door with a crow bar or some similar tool, the evidence shows. The force of the instrument used for prying caused the inside facing to which the lock keep was attached to give way along with a part of the door frame.

Mr. Herrmann said that about $20 in change kept in the two cash registers and a cigar box was taken and that 10 watches were missing—some pocket watches and other wrist watches.

Traces of burnt matches found throughout the store indicated that the intruder, or intruders apparently had made a search for additional cash. Several drawers were found to have been disturbed.

The burglary was discovered about 6:45 a. m. Monday and is believed to have occurred sometime between midnight and daybreak.

Diplomat's Missing Daughter, Page Boy Are Held by Police

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—State police today reported they picked up Christina Wennerstrom, daughter of a Swedish diplomat, and 18-year-old congressional page boy, Hew Williams, who have been missing since June 2 when it was believed they eloped.

Authorities said the two had been married in West Virginia and were driving back from Canada when they were picked up in Allenwood, about 15 miles south of here.

The 16-year-old girl is the daughter of a former Swedish military attaché who has returned to Stockholm on reassignment. Williams, from Falls Church, Va., is a Senate page.

Christiana's mother stayed behind when her husband went to Sweden in hopes the girl would be found.

Two Suffer Eye Injury by A-Blast

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Two women suffered eye damage while watching Tuesday's atomic blast from a point 45 miles distant, the Atomic Energy Commission disclosed Wednesday.

Judith Burke and Valerie Graves, employees of an electrical and engineering company, were among six persons who witnessed the blast from Hermit Mountain, an unrestricted area.

The AEC said all six persons had special protective goggles but Miss Burke failed to get hers on in time and Miss Graves chose to wear sunglasses instead.

They did not report the incident until almost 18 hours after the blast. AEC physicians who examined them Wednesday reported they found no permanent impairment. The women said the sensation was similar to that caused by looking into the sun.

As a result of this incident, the AEC has issued a special preblast advisory warning in connection with a scheduled major nuclear detonation next Thursday.

The AEC advisory warns residents, motorists and fliers in an 11,360-square mile area of Nevada and California of potential eye damage from next Thursday's test. The area includes three major highways.

Meanwhile, the AEC investigated complaints from ranchers that the tests in the current series have damaged the eyes of cattle.

Soviet Fleet Heads Into the Mediterranean

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP)—A Soviet cruiser and two escort vessels passed through the Bosphorus from the Black Sea towards the Mediterranean early today.

Several other cruisers and destroyers were scheduled to pass through the straits later in the day.

Final destination of the Soviet flotilla was not known. Three submarines which passed through the Mediterranean this week from North Sea ports arrived in Alexandria, Egypt.

Allied observers believed the Red fleet was being sent into the Mediterranean as a diplomatic maneuver.

The Russians have shown considerable irritation over the presence in the Mediterranean of the massive U. S. 6th Fleet and the part it played in the Jordan crisis.

Senate Approves Supplemental Funds For Vet Benefits

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Wednesday approved an $85,669,925 supplemental appropriation bill including $65,000,000 for veterans benefits.

Most of the benefits were earmarked for GI schooling of Korean War veterans.

The bill was sent to the White House for the President's signature.

The House Wednesday voted 218-186 against a Senate proposal to add 14 million dollars to the bill to start a federally subsidized flood insurance program. It was the second time the House has refused to approve money for a start on the 500-million-dollar program authorized by Congress last year.

By a 136-47 vote, the House also refused to approve even 10 million dollars of the 30 million dollars the Senate voted for government buying of tungsten, asbestos, fluorspar and Columbian tantalum.

The Senate agreed to drop the proposals from the bill.

Gov't Appeals Girard Case to Supreme Court

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government appealed directly to the Supreme Court today to reverse a court order preventing it from surrendering GI William S. Girard to Japanese authorities for a manslaughter trial.

A petition filed with the court by Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell Jr. asked the court to reverse last Tuesday's decision by Federal Judge Joseph C. McGarraghy.

McGarraghy has ruled that a Japanese trial for Girard would violate his constitutional rights. The government petition said McGarraghy's decision is "clearly wrong" and "public interest in an early disposition of this case" is very great.

Brownell asked the court to accept the case for review, and urged that it schedule oral argument "if deemed necessary, at an early date convenient to the court." He also suggested that Girard's attorneys be required to reply to his petition within two days.

The court now is scheduled to adjourn for the summer recess next Monday. However, it could extend the term for any period it chooses.

U. S. Proposes America and Russia Cut Armed Forces To 2 1/2 Million Men Each

LONDON (AP)—The United States proposed today that the U. S. and Soviet armed forces be cut to 2 1/2 million men each. It said the reductions should be made "without any political preconditions" as part of a first-step disarmament plan.

U. S. delegate Harold E. Stassen made the proposal at today's session of the five-power London disarmament conference, conference sources disclosed.

The cut, to be carried out within one year of the signing of a disarmament treaty, would be part of an overall agreement including the future of nuclear tests.

Stassen also told the conference the United States was prepared to consider further substantial armed force reductions in order to meet Russia half-way.

Masters Degree For Mother of 3

Mr. and Mrs. Harris Berry, daughter of Mrs. Leo V. Winterberger and graduate of the Shawneetown community high school, received her masters degree in education Saturday at graduation exercises held at the University of Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Berry started their teaching careers in Saline county and have since taught in Flora, Clay county; Oskum, Iroquois county; and for the past six years in Paxton, Ill.

During this time the Berrys have reared three husky sons, Bill Jr., Robert Charles and Kenneth.

He indicated the United States would consider the cutting of forces to a figure substantially lower than the proposed 2 1/2 million level—depending on the solution of political problems.

Conference sources said that while the U. S. offer of a 2 1/2-million-man reduction was made without any prior political conditions, further cuts below this level would depend upon the progressive settlement of outstanding East-West political issues.

The long-awaited American proposal touched off a general discussion in which Soviet delegate Velerian Zorin, British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and Canada's David Johnson, took part.

Lloyd emphasized that an agreement on levels of armed forces was a necessary ingredient in any partial disarmament agreement. The Canadian delegate welcomed Stassen's plan.

Zorin, Soviet deputy foreign minister, was non-committal on the U. S. plan. He apparently wanted to await further information on the scope of the U. S. proposal and to consult with the Kremlin on it.

Meanwhile, puzzled Allied reaction to President Eisenhower's statement on halting nuclear tests indicated the Western powers still have not agreed on a "first step" toward control of nuclear arms.

Hope for Light Year for Polio

WASHINGTON — Health authorities said today there is every reason to hope that this will be a light year for polio. But it is still too early to be sure.

So far this year, there have been only about half as many polio cases as there were during the same period of 1956—and 1956 was itself a light year by comparison with the pre-Salk vaccine era. Public Health Service figures published last week showed 1,038 polio cases reported through the 23 weeks ending June 8, compared with 2,040 during the same period last year.

The main reason for hoping that this year's record will continue to be good, he said, is that nearly three-fourths of the people in the most susceptible group have received some degree of protection from Salk vaccine. By June 1, 65,000,000 Americans had received one or more Salk shots. Nine million of these were vaccinated during April and May. Polio strikes hardest among youths under 20 and among pregnant women. There are 67,000,000 people in this group, and 54,000,000 of them have had one or more shots. Although polio incidence declines above age 20, it continues to be a substantial threat to all ages below 40. Only 11,000,000 of the 42,000,000 Americans other than pregnant women; between the ages of 20 and 40 have received shots.

Hoak Homer in Dodger Tilt Ends Reds' Loss-Streak; Cards Win Two from Pirates

By United Press
The Brooklyn Dodgers can't figure out how they gave him his first chance in the big leagues, but cut him in for a full World Series share in 1955 when he was with them and did everything they could to make him happy. And now, look at the thanks they're getting.

He blasted a two-run homer Wednesday night that beat the Dodgers, 4-3, and snapped a four-game Cincinnati losing streak.

Only 11 days ago, Hoak belted a two-run homer off Don Drysdale to defeat the Dodgers, 3-1, in the opener of a double-header and then he clouted another home run off Ed Roebuck to help the Redlegs take the nightcap, 3-0.

On May 8 he came up with a three-run circuit blow off Don Newcombe to give Cincinnati a 7-6 triumph.

The Dodgers are hoping he gets lost somewhere.

Hoak's homer Wednesday night came in the seventh inning on the heels of a pinch two-run homer by Bob Thurman. That four-run rally spelled the seventh victory of the season for Tom Acker. Clem Labine was the loser.

Cards Sweep Two

The St. Louis Cardinals climbed to within a half-game of the pace-setting Braves by sweeping a two-night double-header from Pittsburgh, 5-2 and 5-1, while Milwaukee blanked the Giants, 6-0, and the Cubs beat the Phillies twice, 9-0 and 4-3.

In the American League, the White Sox stayed 2 1/2 games in front with a 3-1 decision over the Orioles; the Yankees crushed the Tigers, 10-2; Kansas City clipped Washington, 6-3, and Boston beat Cleveland, 6-0.

Sam Jones and Lindy McDaniel registered the Cardinals' pair of victories over the Pirates. Jones struck out 10 and pitched a seven-hitter in the opener which was decided in the seventh inning when Joe Cunningham's pinch two-run homer highlighted a three-run rally that snapped a 2-2 tie. The Cards got to Bob Purkey for three runs in the first inning.

Kiwanians Sell Sponsor Tickets for Baseball Program

Members of the Kiwanis club are selling sponsorship tickets for the club's summer baseball program for boys of Harrisburg and surrounding areas. The tickets are $2 or for any other contribution a person might desire to make to help pay expenses of the worthwhile recreation program, an annual undertaking of the Harrisburg Kiwanis club.

At Tuesday night's meeting at the Masonic temple, President Richard Davenport announced the club would tour Lake Harrisburg area next Tuesday evening. Members will meet at the Masonic temple at 6 p. m. for the regular dinner meeting following which Amos Doom, water department superintendent, will guide the visit to the lake.

Gene Nelhaus of the Sahara Coal company was a guest of President Davenport at the meeting.

Junior Legion Blanks Albion

The Harrisburg Junior Legion baseball team blanked Albion, 8 to 0, Wednesday night on the Harrisburg VFW park.

The locals played a fine ball game. They got seven hits and played errorless ball to hand Albion its second defeat of the season.

Jerry King, hurling for Harrisburg, allowed one infield hit and struck out 14 for his second win of the season.

Ray Hassett and Darrell Biggs hit triples for the big blows of the game. Others getting hits were Gary Aldridge, Ron Maynard, Don Pickford, Bob Clark and King.

Name Assistant All-Star Coaches

CHICAGO (AP)—Two former Californians have been named assistant coaches for the 1957 College All Star team, it was announced Wednesday night.

They are Don Paul, a linebacker with the Los Angeles Rams for eight years and former UCLA star, and Don Doll, a Southern California product who played with the Detroit Lions.

The All Stars will meet the National Football League champion New York Giants in their annual battle at Soldiers Field Aug. 9.

Former Green Bay Packer and Chicago Cardinal Coach Curly Lambeau will pilot the All Stars for the second straight season.

Bargers Win Kiwanis Tilt

Keltner homered in the last of the seventh inning to break a tie and give Barger's Accountants a 6-5 decision over Walker's Cleaners Wednesday at the VFW park, in Kiwanis baseball play.

The winners had only three hits off Coker, who walked four and struck out eight, but two of these hits drove in two runs and the other was the deciding homer. Emery was the winning pitcher, giving up six hits and seven free passes while striking out 10. Williams was Barger's leading hitter with two singles and Businaro hit safely twice for the losers.

Dorrisville Baptist did not appear for its scheduled Pony league game with Social Brethren.

Brown TKO's Zulueta in 15th

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Lightweight champion Joe Brown, radiating confidence after Wednesday night's marathon technical knockout of Cuban challenger Orlando Zulueta, said today he would fight highly-regarded Kenny Lane within 90 days if the National Boxing Association wanted him to.

Brown, starting slowly, rallied powerfully in the final three rounds at Denver Coliseum to smash Zulueta helpless with 21 seconds remaining in the 15th round.

The 28-year-old Zulueta made a good, smart fight of it until the 11th and was ahead on judge Joe Illmer's card in the delight of the small crowd of 5,000 who sensed an upset.

But in the 13th round the champion's punches picked up power. He floored Zulueta for a nine count with a left he brought up from below his knees.

Brown knocked Zulueta to the floor again with a right for a throw a knockout punch—his only count of eight in the 15th. Referee Ray Keech called the bout.

SUBSTITUTE DOCTOR

THE STORY: Dr. Garde Shelton has met Valley Stanfield and her sister Nan, his next door neighbors in Bayard, Mo. Garde has come to the small town to take Dr. Kurt Lillard's place on the clinic staff. Dr. Lillard was convicted of murder and was engaged to Nan. But Valley too seems to have been involved in the slaying.

That same evening it appeared that he would be busy. For he had scarcely gone inside again—he had not yet sat down—when the phone rang sharply. “Goodness,” he exclaimed, “I didn’t even know we had one.”

His mother was hurrying down the hall, and he followed at a more leisurely pace. She picked up the phone and spoke into it breathlessly. “Hello?”

He must tell her how to answer for him, how to take messages, and tell her not to give medical advice, herself.

“Oh, yes,” she was saying, “he’s here. Just a minute . . .”

Her face pink, she turned to Garde. “It’s a call already!” she said in a loud whisper.

He took the phone. “Dr. Shelton here,” he said in a firm, clear voice.

“Sir, this is the operator at the clinic. A child has been hurt down at the club. Since you live near, would you want to go there?”

His patient proved to be a little girl, with a long, ugly cut along her throat under her chin. She had lost a lot of blood and now lay limp and white against her mother’s denim jacket.

She was an enchanting little thing, with a mass of bright curly hair, brown-satin limbs, long lashes . . .

“Tell me what happened,” said Garde, his voice rasping. He glanced at the white-coated servant.

“Could I have a basin of water? Towels? Soap?”

“Yes, sir!” said the attendant called Sparks and took off at what was a brisk pace for him.

Garde knelt to get a closer look at the cut, then, putting his fingertips upon the child’s throat, he asked the mother if she thought they could lift Linda enough to put her flat upon the table.

Not waiting for a reply, this move was affected. “Stand out of my light,” said the new doctor, his whole attention upon the little girl; the fingers of his right hand were upon her pulse. “What’s her name?”

“Linda. She cut herself on her bottle. She ran down the beach with it—stumbled—and the bottle broke . . .”

It had barely missed the jugular, too, that edge of broken glass.

Now others standing about took up the story; they were all dressed in picnic clothes, jeans and denim; all were young people. They’d had this beach picnic; Linda had gone off for her bottle; she was getting ashamed of still drinking from one. But the way she came back! Bleeding, screaming, scared to death!

The doctor heard them, but his first attention still was upon the work at hand. Afterward these onlookers told him what he was, and swift.

“It looked as if he never moved his hand from that cut—holding it together—but somehow he got his bag open and some instruments out. He put on some bright, clamp-looking things that took the place of his fingers. Then he was washing that kid’s throat with plain old soap and water—and he had a little bottle, like, with a needle and thread. Oh, no! Not a regular sewing needle! And he was sewing up the cut. First he sponged something on it that I imagine deadened the pain. Don’t you remember? Yes! And then he sewed it. He stood there steady as a rock, bent over her and taking care of her.”

“You came close to losing your child tonight,” he said brusquely to the mother.

She gasped. “Oh, I know, doc- tor! And I am so grateful to you!”

“My job,” said Garde, turning back to the child’s eye.

“Yes, but to have you close enough—”

He listened, straightened, took off the instrument and looped it into his bag. “Linda is four, isn’t she? That’s much too old to be using a nursing bottle still. Had you properly trained her to drink from a cup when she was a year old, all this would not have occurred. Certainly you should not have allowed her to run about with anything so lethal as a glass bottle in her hands.” Linda began to stir, and his big hand soothed her.

He knew that around him these people were exchanging glances; there was even a soft murmur of words.

“Dr. Shelton,” asked Linda’s mother; she was a very striking, looking woman, tall and slender, with high cheek bones and a big mouth. Huge eyes. “Are you married?”

He laughed. “No, I’m not.”

“Well,” said Linda’s mother, “maybe you should be. Maybe then you’d understand a parent’s problems better.”

The next day, Garde went to the clinic, ready to work on a regular schedule. That day was followed by another and another.

Garde was reluctant to talk to Beth about his associates, not at all about his patients and very little about the other doctors and people connected with the clinic.

Beth filled this vacuum with talk of her own experiences.

She must, he thought, watch the Stanfields constantly. Judging from the detailed reports on them which she was able to furnish Gar-

“Mother, don’t intrude on them.”

“I don’t, Garde. But I can’t help seeing them.”
